Yvette Butler is a Staff Attorney at the Amara Legal Center. She joined Amara in May of 2016. As a Staff Attorney, Ms. Butler represents Amara’s clients in a wide variety of cases, including, but not limited to, criminal record expungement, child custody, civil protection orders, name changes, and crime victims advocacy. She also provides advocacy for policy changes and training for pro bono attorneys and local service providers.

Ms. Butler has a long-standing interest in human and civil rights, especially as those areas relate to individuals who are harmed when their sexuality is used against them. During law school, Ms. Butler researched the potential application of international human rights instruments in recognizing the rights of sex workers. While conducting this research, Ms. Butler became aware of the many intersecting needs of sex workers, survivors of sex trafficking, and others involved in commercial sex. She is determined to assist anyone whose rights have been violated while involved in commercial sex, regardless of the reason an individual is involved. She provides assistance with an emphasis on compassion, dignity, and respect for individual autonomy.

Prior to joining Amara, Ms. Butler was an Attorney Fellow with the federal civil rights litigation firm, Victor M. Glasberg & Associates, where she contributed to suits against police for unlawful seizures, false arrests, and more. She also clerked in the United States District Court for the District of South Dakota. Ms. Butler holds a J.D. from The George Washington University Law School. She is admitted to practice law in Virginia and the District of Columbia.
