BOOK RECOMMENDATIONS:

The Anxious Lawyer by Jeena Cho and Karen Gifford
Created by lawyers for lawyers, Cho and Gifford provide a straightforward 8-week introductory program on meditation and mindfulness that can reduce anxiety, improve focus and clarity, and enrich the quality of life.

Better Than Before: Mastering the Habits of Our Everyday Lives by Gretchen Rubin
Ever ask yourself “How do we change?” Better Than Before presents a practical, concrete framework to allow readers to understand their habits—and to change them for good. It explains the (sometimes counter-intuitive) core principles of habit formation through research, humor, and vivid stories of lives transformed.

Clutter Busting: Letting Go of What's Holding You Back by Brooks Palmer
Loaded with inspiring anecdotes and practical tips, Clutter Busting is based on the premise that your things are not sacred, but you are. Palmer shows how to get rid of the things in our lives that no longer serve us. By tossing out these unneeded items, we are also eliminating their negative influences, freeing up energy, and unlocking our potential.

Declutter Your Mind: How to Stop Worrying, Relieve Anxiety, and Eliminate Negative Thinking by S.J. Scott and Barrie Davenport
This book is for anyone who recognizes how their untamed thoughts are interfering with their focus, productivity, happiness, and peace of mind. It details the habits, actions, and mindsets you can use to clean up the mental clutter that might be holding you back from being more focused and mindful.

Manage Your Time to Reduce Your Stress: A Handbook for the Overworked, Overscheduled, and Overwhelmed by Rita Emmett
According to the author, the key is not time management but “stuff management”—taking control of all those tasks to do, people to see, commitments and obligations to fulfill. Mismanagement of all that “to-do” stuff is what leads to stress and with quick, easy-to-digest tips you will learn positive ways to manage the “busy” in your life.

Mindfulness: An Eight-Week Plan for Finding Peace in a Frantic World by Mark Williams and Danny Penman
This book reveals a set of simple yet powerful practices that you can incorporate into daily life to help break the cycle of anxiety, stress, unhappiness, and exhaustion. It promotes the kind of happiness and peace that gets into your bones. It seeps into everything you do and helps you meet the worst that life throws at you with new courage.

Organized Enough will teach you the lifelong habits of organized people, showing you how to make cleaning up effortless and automatic. With seven concepts to help you define your goals and seven essential habits to keep chaos and clutter at bay, Organized Enough will teach you to reframe how you think about your space, your stuff, and your life.

The Sweet Spot: How to Accomplish More by Doing Less by Christine Carter, Ph.D.
Drawing on the latest research related to happiness, productivity, and performance, Carter provides concrete tips on how to sharpen your focus, improve your efficiency, and use technology to your advantage.

MINDFULNESS APPS:

Headspace makes it easy for people just learning the art of meditation. Starting on level one, you’ll learn meditation basics and techniques through fun, animated videos and a guided 10-minute session each day.

Insight Timer is one of the most popular free apps available, offering a wealth of guided meditations appropriate for all levels and the ability to connect with a community of like-minded individuals.

Stop, Breathe & Think: The app prompts you to take 10 seconds to think about how you feel mentally, physically, and emotionally, and then offers a handful of meditations tailored to your state of mind. You can also track your progress through a chart that shows how you feel before and after meditating.

APPS TO KEEP DIGITAL TECHNOLOGY IN CHECK:

Boomerang for Gmail – allows you to schedule emails to be sent in the future
Evernote - captures, stores and synchronizes text, image and video files across multiple computing devices
Focus Booster – activity tracker and Pomodoro timer
FocusWriter – a free word processor that blocks out all distractions; it's just you and the blank page
Freedom.to – allows you to block certain apps and websites and put it on a schedule. For example, you can block Twitter for 30 minutes while you crank out a memo.
Inthemoment.io – keeps track of the number of times you pick up your iphone, how long you use it for and keeps track of the worst offender apps
Pocket – when you come across something you want to read (but shouldn’t), store it in Pocket and read it later
Rescue Time – shows you how you spend your time and provides tools to help you be more productive.
Trello – a task management app that gives you a visual overview of what is being worked on and who is working on it
