Pop Quiz  SHARING FEES (TRUE/FALSE) Circle the best answer

1. The D.C. Rules permit a lawyer to state on a firm’s website that the lawyer “Specializes in Insurance Law.”  TRUE/FALSE

2. The D.C. Rules permit a lawyer to knock on the doors of homes in the District and offer his or her legal services.  TRUE/FALSE

3. The D.C. Rules permit a lawyer to pay a firm employee for referring clients to the lawyer.  TRUE/FALSE

4. A lawyer may pay an internet-based for-profit referral service a per click flat fee?  TRUE/FALSE

5. Lawyers in different firms may make an agreement to refer cases to one another exclusively.  TRUE/FALSE

6. Lawyer B may pay Lawyer A in another firm a percentage of the fee earned by Lawyer B where Lawyer A originally referred the case to Lawyer B. T/F

7. Lawyer B may pay Lawyer A a flat fee for referring the case. TRUE/FALSE

8. Lawyers need not disclose to the client an agreement to share legal fees between A and B, if the client’s total legal fees are not affected. T/F

9. A lawyer may pay 6% of his/her total legal fees to a lawyer referral service that referred the matter to the lawyer.  TRUE/FALSE

10. Lawyers may be disciplined for ethical misconduct of their partners? T/ F