

LISE ADAMS

Lise B. Adams joined the D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center as a Managing Attorney in 2011 and currently serves as its Director for Legal Services for Individuals & Families. She supervises and oversees all litigation and other projects to deliver legal information, advice, and representation to District residents living on low incomes. Lise previously served as the Family Permanency Project (now Families First) Director at the Children's Law Center and as a Powell Fellow and Staff Attorney at the Legal Aid Society of the District of Columbia. She graduated, magna cum laude, from the College of William & Mary and from the University of Virginia School of Law, where she received the Herbert L. Kramer/Herbert Bangel Community Service Award.