

ASHLEY ERICKSON

Ashley Erickson joined the American Constitution Society in March 2017 and serves as Director of Network Advancement. As Director of Network Advancement, she oversees ACS pro bono and volunteer projects. This includes projects with national ACS, local ACS lawyer and law student chapters, and coalition partnerships. Her portfolio of projects includes a variety of issue areas with an emphasis on voting rights. Ashley also sits on the council for All Voting is Local, a voting rights campaign housed at the Leadership Conference.

Before joining ACS, Ashley was a magistrate in the Virginia State Judiciary's 31st District. Prior to her work as a magistrate, she worked in the Office of General Counsel at George Mason University.

Ashley received her J.D. from the Brigham Young University J. Reuben Clark Law School, and she is a member of the Virginia Bar.
