

ANDREW O. CLARKE

Andrew O. Clarke, Esquire is the Founder of A. Clarke Law, a Small Litigation Law Firm based in Washington, DC. His Firm represents protesters in Washington, DC and Virginia. Mr. Clarke's Firm was involved in discovering key evidence leading to the dismissal of over 60 criminal cases related to the unrest following the inauguration of Donald Trump. His Firm also obtained dismissals in Virginia for protests occurring in Fairfax and Loudoun County. He is currently involved in representing individuals arrested in 2020 during the unrest following the death of George Floyd, including a Federal case involving the removal of a confederate monument. Andrew is a graduate of George Washington University Law School and the University of Delaware.