

ADDY SCHMITT

Addy R. Schmitt, Vice Chair of Miller & Chevalier's Litigation Department, represents individuals and corporations in criminal and civil litigation. Ms. Schmitt has significant trial experience, including recent trials in the District of Columbia, Virginia, and Maryland federal courts, as well as extensive experience representing clients facing parallel proceedings in multiple jurisdictions. Ms. Schmitt is widely recognized as a leading white collar criminal defense attorney, including in Chambers USA (2018-2020), Best Lawyers in America (2021), Legal 500 (2019-2020) and Washingtonian Magazine's "Top Lawyers" (2020). In addition to white collar matters, Ms. Schmitt focuses on complex civil litigation involving the federal government. She is also often called upon to conduct sensitive internal investigations for a variety of clients.
