Can You Turn Your City into a Referral Network?

If you are intrigued by Conrad Saam's Dark Social technique discussed here last month, we have a program at Noon on Zoom November 10 that is a must for you. Sameena Kluck is presenting Modern Business Development: Winning Clients and Talent Online and you may register here.

Reaching out to clients where they already are – on social media – is at the essence of Dark Social, a remarkably effective technique that turns your city into a referral network when you work it properly.

Sameena is a social media and branding strategist who is also a lawyer. On November 10, she will cover engaging online, creating a compelling profile, being focused and intentional on social media and more.

If Conrad Saam's program presented the conceptional framework for social media engagement, Sameena's session will get you into the weeds of turning your city into a referral network.

Successful Small Firm Practice Course

We have launched the Successful Small Firm Practice Course in a new way . . .

Are you interested in a business incubator approach to growing your law firm? Consider this Course, which has been a staple for several years as a series of multi-session programs focused on starting & growing a firm with attendees creating work product for the firm. But now, we offer it upon request on an individual basis designed to help the lawyer develop their firm in a series of one-on-one sessions. The Course will be able to focus precisely on the type of firm the member wants to create and will take place at a pace that suits the lawyer. Lawyers work through their business and marketing plans and have built-in accountability for achieving their business goals. If you are interested in this approach to creating and growing a law firm, contact PMAS@dcbar.org.

Basic Training & Beyond

Here is how to start, grow and manage a law firm in a large, urban market during a pandemic. Our monthly Basic Training & Beyond is set for November 9 & 16, 2022 / 9:15 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. We will meet in-person in the Williamson Conference Room on the third floor of Bar Headquarters or by Zoom videoconference. In-person attendees must comply with these protocols to enter the building.

This program has been presented more than three hundred times for more than 4,000 lawyers over the last fourteen years, and many have launched and are now operating small law firms. We stay connected with many small firms, and what we learn informs the content for this program.

Managing Money

On December 5, learn how to onboard a new client by creating the appropriate fee agreement; make the proper entries onto the client ledger and trust account when needed; track the established earning mechanism; and make proper entries in the firm's operating or business account. Our next in-person and Zoom session of Managing Money is set for December 5, 2022, 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

We also present Managing Money on request for a law firm or organization.

Register for an upcoming session or schedule a session for your firm here.

Lunch & Learn

All sessions begin at noon EDT.

NOVEMBER 10

Modern Business Development: Winning Clients & Talent Online with Sameena Kluck. How do you normally engage with clients, prospects, and potential new hires? Are you mostly sending emails or issuing client alerts and newsletters? Why not reach out to them where they already are - on social media?

In this session, social media and personal branding strategist, and former lawyer, Sameena Safdar Kluck will cover:

- Why engaging online is crucial for your business.
- How to create a compelling profile.
- What are the two things you should do if you only have 10 minutes free for social media.
- How you decide which social media platforms to use.

How to amplify your clients and employees online to drive your network.
