

BRIDGETTE STUMPF

Bridgette Stumpf, Esq. is the Executive Director of Network for Victim Recovery of DC (NVRDC), a position she has held since co-founding the organization in May 2012. For over a decade, Bridgette has spent her legal career advocating at the local and national levels to ensure those impacted by crime are afforded meaningful rights and access to supportive services to mitigate the negative effects of trauma post-victimization. Bridgette became a certified police instructor in 2009 and is currently an adjunct associate professor at the University of Maryland Global Campus, where she teaches the Study of Victimology. Bridgette was honored in 2014 by the Women's Information Network (WIN) Young Women Achievement Award (YWA) for her efforts in non-profit advocacy and in 2019 by the Center for Nonprofit Advancement with the Excellence in Chief Executive Leadership (EXCEL) Award, which recognizes innovation, motivation, community building, ethical integrity and strategic leadership.
