

MICHELLE K. WILSON

Michelle K. Wilson joined the District of Columbia Department of Corrections as an Attorney Advisor in January 2020. Prior to joining the Department of Corrections, Ms. Wilson spent four years as an Assistant Attorney General for the Maryland Office of the Attorney General. There she represented the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services and the Department of Labor. Before joining the Maryland Office of the Attorney General, Ms. Wilson was an Assistant State's Attorney with the State's Attorney's Office for Baltimore City. She worked for the State's Attorney's Office for 10 years and left the office after spending four years prosecuting homicide cases.

Ms. Wilson is currently the President of the Alliance of Black Women Attorneys of Maryland, Inc. and is a Past-President of the Monumental City Bar Association, the oldest African American Bar Association in the State of Maryland. She has also sat on numerous boards and associations.

Ms. Wilson is also an adjunct faculty member at the University of Baltimore School of Law, teaching first year law students legal writing and advocacy. In addition, she teaches graduate and undergraduate business law and criminal law courses for Strayer University.

Ms. Wilson is a graduate of the University of Maryland School of Law and received her undergraduate degree from the University of Delaware.