

District of Columbia
Court of Appeals

M-295-26

BEFORE: Blackburne-Rigsby, Chief Judge, and Beckwith, Easterly, McLeese, Deahl, Howard, and Shanker, Associate Judges.

ORDER

(FILED – March 24, 2026)

In February 2026, the court sent out for public comment proposed amendments to D.C. App. R. 46, which governs admission to the D.C. Bar. First, under current D.C. App. R. 46(b)(1)(B)(iv) and 46(e)(3)(A), a person can meet one of the requirements for admission to the D.C. Bar if the person has been a “member[] in good standing of the bar of a court of general jurisdiction in the United States for a period of at least 3 years immediately” preceding the application for admission. The court proposed changing this requirement by requiring active practice, rather than mere membership in a bar. Second, the court proposed deleting D.C. App. R. 46(b)(1)(B)(iii) and (e)(3)(B), which are now-outdated provisions relating to applications for admission filed before March 31, 2022.

The comment period has closed and the court received no comments. The court therefore has determined to adopt the proposed amendment.

Clean and marked-up versions of the affected parts of D.C. App. R. 46 are attached. The amendments will go into effect on Friday April 24, 2026, and will apply to all applications submitted after the amendments go into effect.
