

We Can Do It!: How Pro Bono Lawyers Are Shaping the Voting Rights Landscape

1.0 CLE Credit Hour

Our knowledgeable and experienced panel will examine how pro bono attorneys from the private sector are spearheading some of the most impactful voting rights work and cases in the country. Specifically, our faculty experts will examine the leading legal and policy issues in voting rights and how pro bono attorneys have and can be engaged in the following:

- ✚ Voter Registration Rules
- ✚ Voter ID Restrictions
- ✚ Voter Purge Efforts
- ✚ Redistricting and the Census
- ✚ Gerrymandering Challenges
- ✚ Motor Voter Registration Efforts
- ✚ Election Protection Initiatives in 2020

Our panel will also examine how lawyers at law firms can get involved in voting rights pro bono opportunities and discuss best practices in setting up these large-scale litigation matters within firms.

Faculty:

Ashley Erickson, Moderator

Director of Network Advancement
American Constitution Society

Nancy Anderson, Panelist

Director of Legal Mobilization and
Pro Bono
Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights
Under Law

Jonathan Diaz, Panelist

Legal Counsel, Voting Rights
Campaign Legal Center

Suzanne E. Turner, Panelist

Pro Bono Partner
Dechert LLP