

CARL TURPIN

Carl K. Turpin has over 40 years of experience handling labor and employment matters both for management and labor. Mr. Turpin has tried many multi-day jury trials, bench trials, administrative hearings, arbitrations and grievance hearings. Mr. Turpin has participated in numerous labor/management collective bargaining negotiations. In April 2019, Mr. Turpin retired from the District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) as a Supervisor of the Labor and Employment unit of the Office of the General Counsel. Prior to working for DCPS, Mr. Turpin was a senior attorney at Greene and Letts, a Chicago law firm. Currently, Mr. Turpin has started an alternative dispute resolution practice as an arbitrator, hearing officer, employment investigator and mediator. Mr. Turpin is a member of several alternative dispute resolution panels. Mr. Turpin earned a bachelor's degree from Howard University (Cum Laude) and J.D. degree from DePaul University College of Law.