

ASHLEY CARTER

Ashley Carter is an Equal Justice Works Fellow at DC Volunteer Lawyers Project, sponsored by Greenberg Traurig, LLP and Steptoe & Johnson LLP. As part of her fellowship Ashley manages DCVLP's Domestic Violence Protection Order Clinic, a pilot project that opened in the fall of 2019 and is housed at the DC Superior Court. She also provides direct representation in Civil Protection Order cases. Ashley was recently awarded DC SAFE's COVID-19 Hero Award for her outstanding advocacy for survivors during the COVID-19 pandemic. Prior to beginning her Fellowship, Ashley completed a two-year term as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Maribeth Raffinan, Presiding Judge of the Domestic Violence Division at the DC Superior Court. Before beginning her clerkship Ashley represented survivors of domestic violence as a student attorney in the Family Justice Litigation Clinic and as a legal intern with Legal Aid Chicago. Ashley received her J.D. from George Washington University Law School and her B.A. from Transylvania University.
