Part VI, Questions 12C At the beginning of the year, July 1, the Executive office (staff liason) distributes the conflict of interest policy to the Board of Directors of the Pro Bono Center and a questionnaire to be completed by each Board member and Key Employee. The completed forms are kept on file in the Executive office. If a conflict is disclosed, the Board member recuses him/herself from the meeting and the issue is discussed by the remaining Board members during which the issue is resolved and appropriate action is taken pursuant to the policy. Potential conflicts at the Board level are reviewed by the Board; conflicts at the staff level are reviewed by senior management.

Part VI, Question 15 The District of the Columbia Bar ("DC Bar"), a related Section 115 organization, acts as the payroll agent for the DC Bar Pro Bono Center. The DC Bar uses the following methods to determine the compensation of the Pro Bono Center's Executive Vice President, Executive Director and key employees: independent compensation consultant, compensation survey/study in late 2018 and, Form 990 of other comparable organizations. Upon the recommendation of the independent consultant, the DC Bar has adopted salary ranges for each position in the organization based on the market environment for comparable peer organizations. These ranges are updated annually based on the recommendation of the compensation consultant. The Board approves the compensation for the Executive Vice President, who also serves as the Chief Executive Officer of the DC Bar. The Executive Vice President determines the compensation of the Executive Director and key employees by considering the above factors along with written annual performance appraisals.
