

RENATA COOPER

Renata Kendrick Cooper currently serves as the Executive Assistant United States Attorney for External Affairs at the U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia. In this role (with oversight for the Legislative Affairs Unit, the Community Affairs Unit, and the Media Affairs Unit), she leads and coordinates the Office's relationship with its many partners, including local government bodies, community groups, nongovernmental organizations, and the media. Awarded Bachelor's and Master's degrees in English literature simultaneously in four years, she continued her studies at Emory University, which also awarded her the Juris Doctor degree. A skilled litigator with a diverse background comprising civil litigation and criminal trial experience, Ms. Cooper began her legal career in the District of Columbia nearly 30 years ago. She spent almost one-third of her career in the private sector prior to joining the Department of Justice in 1994.
